- Custody Case
- Divorce case where the parties are the parents to a child(ren) under the age of 18

The Court will entertain a Motion to Waive Seminar Attendance in certain situations where attendance is a hardship or the moving parent in a divorce has attended but the other parent has not and the entry of a divorce decree is on hold for this reason.

This form should not be filed just because the parent does not want to attend the Seminar. There must be a very good reason for the Court to excuse this requirement.
