
Plaintiff

v.

Defendant

: IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
: DAUPHIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

NO: _____

ORDER

AND NOW, THIS _____ day of _____, 20____, the Motion for Appointment of Master is GRANTED and Cindy S. Conley, Esquire is appointed as Master.

A Preliminary Conference is scheduled for both parties and their attorneys on _____ at _____ in Conference Room 2 on the 7th Floor of the Juvenile Justice Center, 25 S. Front Street, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania 17101.

If economic claims have been raised of record in this case, to the extent not already filed, the non-moving party shall have ten (10) days from the date of this Order to file the documents required by Pa.R.C.P. 1920.31(a) and Pa.R.C.P. 1920.33(a).
Failure to file the required documents may subject the offending party to sanctions as provided in those rules.

BY THE COURT:

PER CURIAM

DISTRIBUTION:

Plaintiff

v.

Defendant

: IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
: DAUPHIN COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

NO: _____

Attorney for Plaintiff or Self-Represented Party

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Fax: _____

E-Mail _____

Attorney for Defendant or Self-Represented Party

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Fax: _____

Email: _____

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF MASTER

_____, Plaintiff/Defendant, moves the court to appoint the master with respect to all claims raised of record and in support of the motion states:

1. The plaintiff's current mailing address is:

2. The defendant's current mailing address is:

3. The respondent has has not appeared in the action personally or by his/her attorney _____.

4. The statutory grounds for divorce is/are:

5. Discovery is or is not complete.

Date

Signature