

* RULE 1208. FINDINGS AND PROTECTION ORDERS

The Magisterial District Judge, when making an order of protection, shall

- (1)
 - (a) Secure the full name, address and telephone number where the complainant can be reached directly or where he/she can reliably and promptly receive messages.
 - (b) Secure the full name, address and telephone number of the person allegedly committing the abuse.
- (2) Notify the complainant that the Magisterial District Judge will certify the proceeding to the court at the resumption of the business of the court.
- (3)
 - (a) Advise the complainant to contact an attorney or contact Mid Penn Legal Services. The Magisterial District Judge shall furnish the complainant with the address and telephone number of that agency and the Dauphin County Lawyer Referral Service.
 - (b) Advise the complainant of the existence of programs for victims of domestic violence in Dauphin County and nearby counties. The Magisterial District Judge shall furnish the complainant with the addresses (if available) and telephone numbers of such programs.

* Effective 01/01/90